A Message From Our President

“Remember, that this is your college and we are always pleased to see our Vol State Alums and hear of your accomplishments” states Dr. Warren Nichols, President

Dear Alumni and Friends:

It is an exciting time for us here at Vol State. The Middle Tennessee area is experiencing phenomenal growth and we are right in the heart of it! As I begin my 5th year as President, I am pleased to be able to share with you, through this inaugural alumni newsletter, the good work that is occurring at Vol State.

We are finally close to putting the physical effects of the 2006 Tornado behind us. I can tell you first hand that no words can describe the impact the tornado has played on our emotions, our sense of well-being, and our work. Even though we have faced many difficulties in dealing with the upheaval of the Tornado; our faculty, staff, and administrators continued to take on new initiatives and challenges along the way. We have grown stronger! I am so proud to work with such a committed group of professionals.

In this newsletter you will be provided with the Vol State year in review and I hope you get a sense of all the activity that has been taking place. I also believe you will discover more about your Alma Mater through our Spotlights on people and services. Additional information about programs and services can always be found on our website at www.volstate.edu. However, this newsletter is our way of providing you with updates on the current happenings at Vol State. Please feel free to share with us what you would like to see in future issues.

As we are continuing to prepare for our future, I would like to invite you to stay connected to Vol State. For those of you who have not been on campus in a while, please stop by and see the positive changes that have occurred out of the tornado's devastation. Remember, that this is your college and we are always pleased to see our Vol State Alums and hear of your accomplishments.

Dr. Warren Nichols
President, Vol State Community College

New Faces at the Foundation

Karen Mitchell has been appointed Vice President for Resource Development. Mitchell has extensive background in development. She served as Director of Business at Hendersonville Medical Center; President of United Way of Sumner County; and the Executive Director of the Cumberland Crisis Pregnancy Center.

“I went to school at Vol State for two years and loved it,” Mitchell said. “We have great teachers here. I’m not sure I can put into words what it feels like to come back and work at the college.” Mitchell then added, “We’re trying to bring a new energy to our Foundation events and find new ways to engage the community,”

Lori Johnson has been named the Resource Development Specialist. Johnson is also familiar with development in the area. She was the Development Associate with the Sumner Foundation for six years.

“I was born and raised here,” said Johnson. “In my work at the Sumner Foundation, I established many rewarding relationships. I am hoping to use those contacts to bring new folks to Vol State.” Johnson also has a unique perspective when it comes to alumni. She too is a Vol State alumnus. “I think it adds a lot, in terms of what I can say to potential donors and alumni. This is my opportunity to give back to the college,” Johnson stated.

SPOTLIGHT ON FACULTY— Betty Williams

Betty C. Williams has been chosen as the Faculty member to spotlight in this issue of your Alumni Newsletter. Ms. Williams was born in Portland, TN. She was educated in the public school systems in Gallatin and graduated in 1969. She is the proud parent of two children. Her son is a U. S. Army Captain and is currently serving in Iraq. Her daughter works for the city of Gallatin. She is also the grandparent of one grandson and one granddaughter. She is the second child of six and a first generation college graduate.

Ms. Williams has an extensive educational background.

- 1973 Bachelor of Science Major, Health Physical Education, Tennessee State University.
- 1975 Master of Education, Tennessee State University
- 1978 Post Graduate Courses in Education, Austin Peay State University
- 1980 Corrective Therapy and Recreation Therapy, Veterans Administration Medical Center
- 1989 Doctor of Arts Degree, Dissertation Stage in Doctoral Program, MTSU

Ms. Williams professional work experience is as extensive and impressive as her education.

- 1990—date Associate Professor, Health and Physical Education
- 2000—date Watercise Instructor, Gallatin Civic Center
- 1984-1990 Associate Professor, Health and Physical Education, Dyersburg State Community College. Served as Women's Basketball Coach 1984-1986
- 1981-1984 Instructor and Library Assistant, Volunteer State
- 1976-1981 Instructor, Health and Physical Education, Austin Peay University. Served as Women's Volleyball and Track Coach 1976-1979
- 1974-1976 Instructor, Physical Education, Union Sixth Grade School
- 1973-1974 Instructor, Physical Education and Science, Union Seventh Grade School

Ms. Williams has not only made an impact in primary and higher education, she is also very involved in her community. She sponsored the community Kwanzaa celebration in Gallatin. She also presented a four week workshop for Inroads Parent Support group on "How to Prepare Your Child for College". She works individually with disabled persons through an exercise program for restoration. She started the Soul Food Luncheon in celebration of Black History month at Vol State. She served on the Board of Directors for African American Leadership Conference at Rust College in Holy Springs, MS. She also works with seniors (50+) in personal training.

Ms. Williams demonstrates her dedication to Volunteer State Community College by volunteering her personal time. She has served various committees such as, Campus and Cultural Diversity Committee, Chairperson on the Library Committee, Promotion and Tenure Committee, Advisor for the African American Student Union Organization from 1992-2006. She was a chaperone for AASU members to Leadership Conference in Holy Springs, MS. She was appointed to serve on the Volunteer State College Foundation Board of Trustees. She has been serving in this capacity from 2002 to date.

Ms. Williams exemplifies some of our many outstanding faculty members that we will continue to spotlight in future editions of your Alumni Newsletter.

ALUM COVER STORY—Gary Renfro

“As we travel down life’s road we meet many individuals who say ‘If I were involved I’d...’ Many folks never finish that sentence. I served on various boards and do volunteer work to help make a difference in our community; I wanted to give something back.”

Gary Renfro is our Spotlight on Alumni Cover Story for this edition. Mr. Renfro graduated magna cum laude from Vol State in 1992. He then attended Vanderbilt University where he graduated summa cum laude and received his Bachelor of Engineering Degree in Electrical Engineering. He resides in Lebanon, TN with his wife, Terri and two children Lacey, a graduate of Lipscomb University who now works for Merrill Lynch as a client associate and Alex, a junior at Lipscomb University majoring in Bio-Chemistry.

While at Vol State, Mr. Renfro received the R. Wade Powers Award for Probity, Positive Difference Award, Patricia B. Lebkuecher Award for Academic Excellence, Math and Science Award for Academic Excellence, Faculty Award for Student of the Year and graduated at the top of the class with a GPA of 4.0. At Vanderbilt University, Mr. Renfro received the Tau Beta Pi—Engineer’s Honor Society, Eta Kappa Nu—Electrical Engineer’s Honor Society, Gamma Beta Phi Society and Mortarboard Honor Society. He also made Dean’s list for all semesters at Vol State and Vanderbilt.

Mr. Renfro stated, “My career path led me to Toshiba America Consumer Products here in Lebanon for 13 years as the Facilities Engineering and Maintenance Manager, then to Vanderbilt University and now to my current position with KenWal.”

“I proudly served 4 years in the United States Air Force as a Master Instructor of Avionic Communications attaining the rank of E-5, Staff Sergeant,” Mr. Renfro added.

Mr. Renfro is actively involved in his community. He has served on the Sign Ordinance Review Board, the City Abatement Board, and the Lebanon Planning Commission. He also ran for public office (Ward 6 City Counselor) in 2003. Mr. Renfro stated, “We lost the race, but met and were befriended by many of our neighbors. It was a great learning experience for me and my family.”

Mr. Renfro is also active in volunteerism. He helped coach his children’s little league teams when they were younger. He and his wife volunteer through her employer with Habitat for Humanity. He currently serves as a Trustee for Vol State College Foundation. “As we travel down life’s road we meet many individuals who say ‘If I were involved I’d...’ Many folks never finish that sentence, or if they do, they offer verbal recourse without action. I served on the aforementioned boards and ran for office to help make a difference in our community; I wanted to give something back to such a great community that gives so much to us.”

Gary Renfro has given us an example of what all Vol State Alumni should make as our goal, “to give something back to the community.”

We encourage the community and area businesses to participate in continuing education programs and to utilize the many services available. For more information about Continuing Education visit our website at www.volstate.edu/continuing
